This document outlines the understanding but not limited to the below between World Islamic Mission Canada INC and its Financial Supporters “Donors”

Financial Supporters “Donors” policies:

1. All monetary donations by individuals or corporations are Tax deductible unless specifically requested by a donor not to record as such.
2. All monetary donations are recorded and documented with an acknowledgement receipt issued to the donors; this is done irrespective whether a Tax deductible receipt is issued or not.
3. For recurring donations, a donor has the option to opt out at any time by providing written notice to the organization in a timely manner to process the cancellation request.
4. Financial donations collected are disclosed on the financial statements posted on the notice board.
5. A certified copy of the financial statements is posted on the noticeboard for the public.
6. Donors Privacy - Donors records including personal information and donation amounts are kept confidential. Only the donors have the right to see or review their own records with authorized personnel of World Islamic Mission Canada.
7. Donors Anonymity - Donors may request to remain anonymous in regards to being publicly identified as a supporter of the organization.
8. It is the policy of the organization not to share its donors list with other organizations.
9. Occasionally the organization staff will contact the donors for the purpose of inviting them to programs, informing them of special activities and soliciting additional support. Every effort is made to honor donors requests in regards to:
 - a) Limiting the frequency of calls
 - b) Not to be contacted by phone or other means
 - c) Not to receive printed materials from the organization
10. All financial donations are used to support the World Islamic Mission Canada’s charity works as registered and recognized by Canada Revenue Agency.
